Discovery of some Falun Gong members in the city to announce to quit the Chinese Communist Party and Youth League

Based on the information obtained by monitoring the Internet, influenced by overseas Falun Gong organisation's "Nine Commentaries on the CCP" series editorials, on the 3rd December the "China Peace Organisation" published "A proposal to appeal CCP members to resign from the CCP", on the 4th December The Epoch Times launched a so-called "Quit CCP" website. Misled by this, four Falun Gong members in our city published so-called "statement of resigning from the CCP and Youth League". Apart from one person used nickname "Awakening", others used real names. The details are as follows:

1. On 5th December, Mu Xiangjie (female, Date of Birth: 16th July 1976, the Hui nationality, at present lives in abroad) published a statement "I firmly withdraw from the Communist Youth League".
2. On 5th December, Gu Wang (the husband of Wu Yanxia, a diehard Falun Gong in Ji County of our city, at present lives in Canada) published a so-called "statement of withdrawing from the CCP" to the Party Committee of Tianjin electricity transmission design research institute.
3. On 13th December, Zhang Rongfa, a citizen in our city, published a so-called statement of "Quitting the evil CCP". At present, further investigation is carrying on regarding this person.
